

WE WANT YOU to join the yearbook staff

Do you have what it takes? We think so.

Selection for the yearbook staff is a competitive process. Receiving this brochure means you have been recommended by a faculty member and/or current yearbook staff member because of your writing ability, creativity, strong work ethic and ability to work in a team setting. We think you would be a great asset to our staff.

We already know a bit about you so let us tell you a bit about us. First of all, yearbook is both an activity and a class. Being a member of the yearbook staff means signing up for Photojournalism 1. What does one do in Photojournalism? Well, aside from the fun times, the cool trips and the good food, you can expect to learn a lot about the photojournalism world. Staffers learn how to use publishing software, to take better pictures and write interesting copy and captions that tell the story of the year. You will work with many different people while doing a variety of tasks. Come down to the yearbook room and check it out!

Interested in joining yearbook?

Simply complete and return the attached application to Ms. Percival in the Yearbook Room (S105) and register for Photojournalism 1 with your counselor.
